UNITED WE STAND

The freedom's cause has now been won,
For us the battles just begun,
We students of today must be
Bulwarks of strength for democracy.

Our task is to help insure a life
Of freedom from hunger, fear and strife,
To all the people of every land
With united effort we'll always stand.

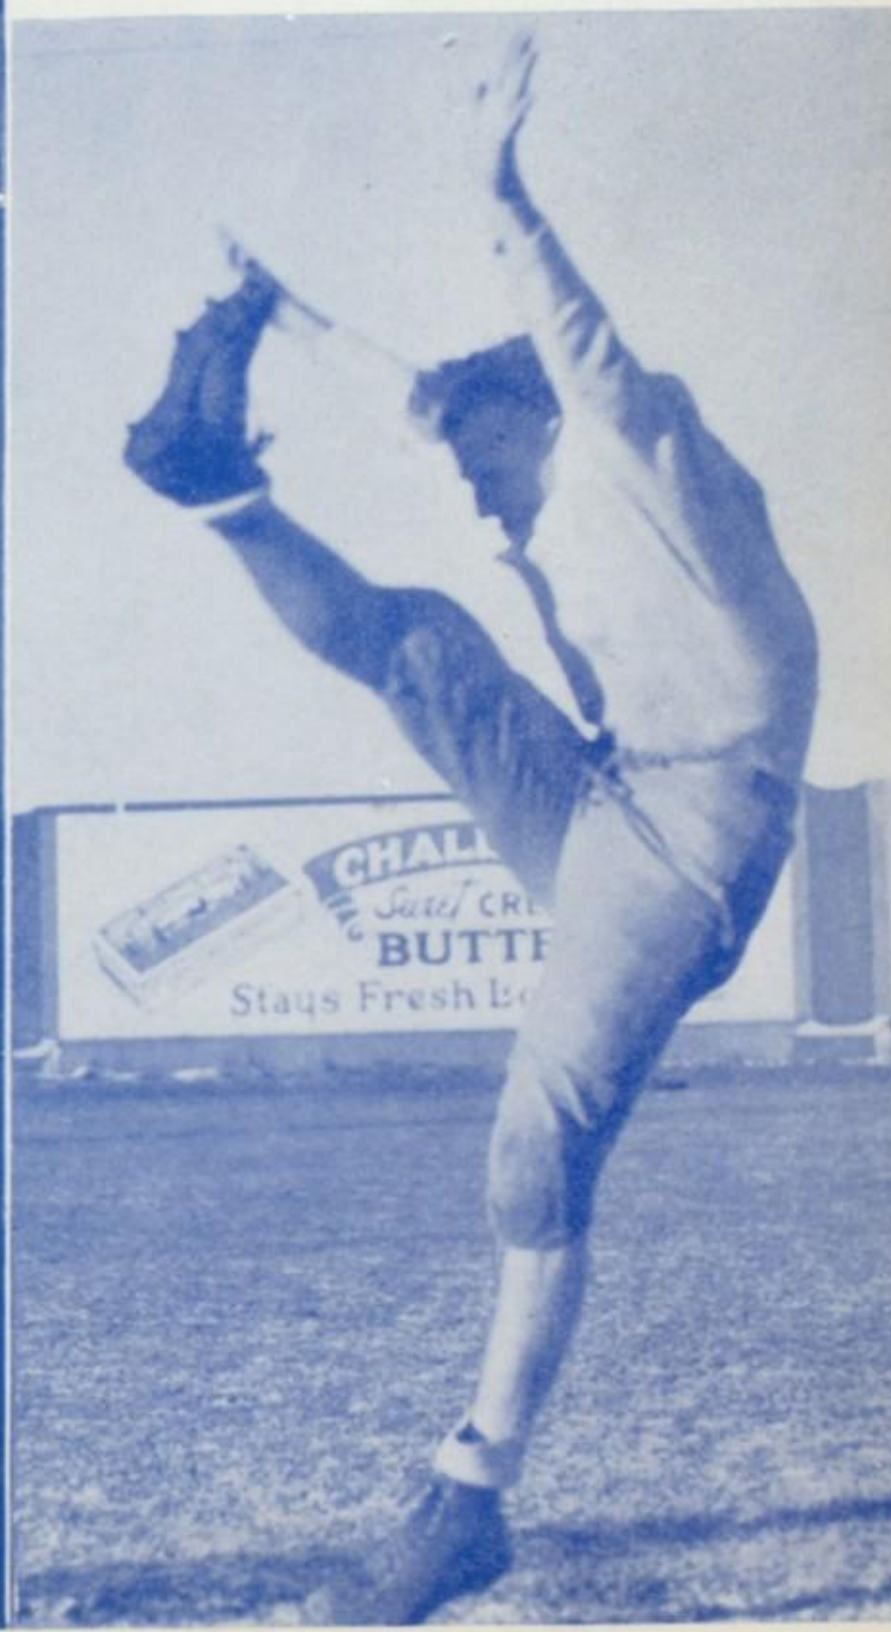

Brave soldiers, sailors and marines
Left our halls for battle scenes,
Passing to us the sacred trust
That the peace they won will be fair and just.

"United we stand, and divided we fall,"
Is an axiom which we must ever recall,
In our land of the brave and home of the free
We'll set an example for all nations to see.

By Mersel Day

The purpose of this annual is to set forth a lasting record of the school year 1945-46. May those who keep it find it increasing in value as the years go by and may this book bring as much joy to you who follow its pages as it has to the staff that prepared it for you.

ADMINISTRATION

W. W. CHRISTENSEN

MESSAGE

There is more of personal feeling in this greeting than in previous greetings to graduating classes.

The reason is that you and I entered the Idaho Falls schools together twelve years ago. You were very timid first graders; I an equally timid superintendent. So you represent to me the completion of a cycle, a school generation of youth come and gone.

You have been alike a pleasure and an inspiration. It has been fun watching you evolve through the stages of tomboy and freckles, bobby sox and falsetto voices, demure maidenhood and robust manhood. Inspiration has come from the growth and development you have shown.

But you are really just beginning. Ahead lie college life, vocational choice, home building and community service, each with its challenge and its promise.

I know you will accept the challenge and justify the confidence we all have in your success.

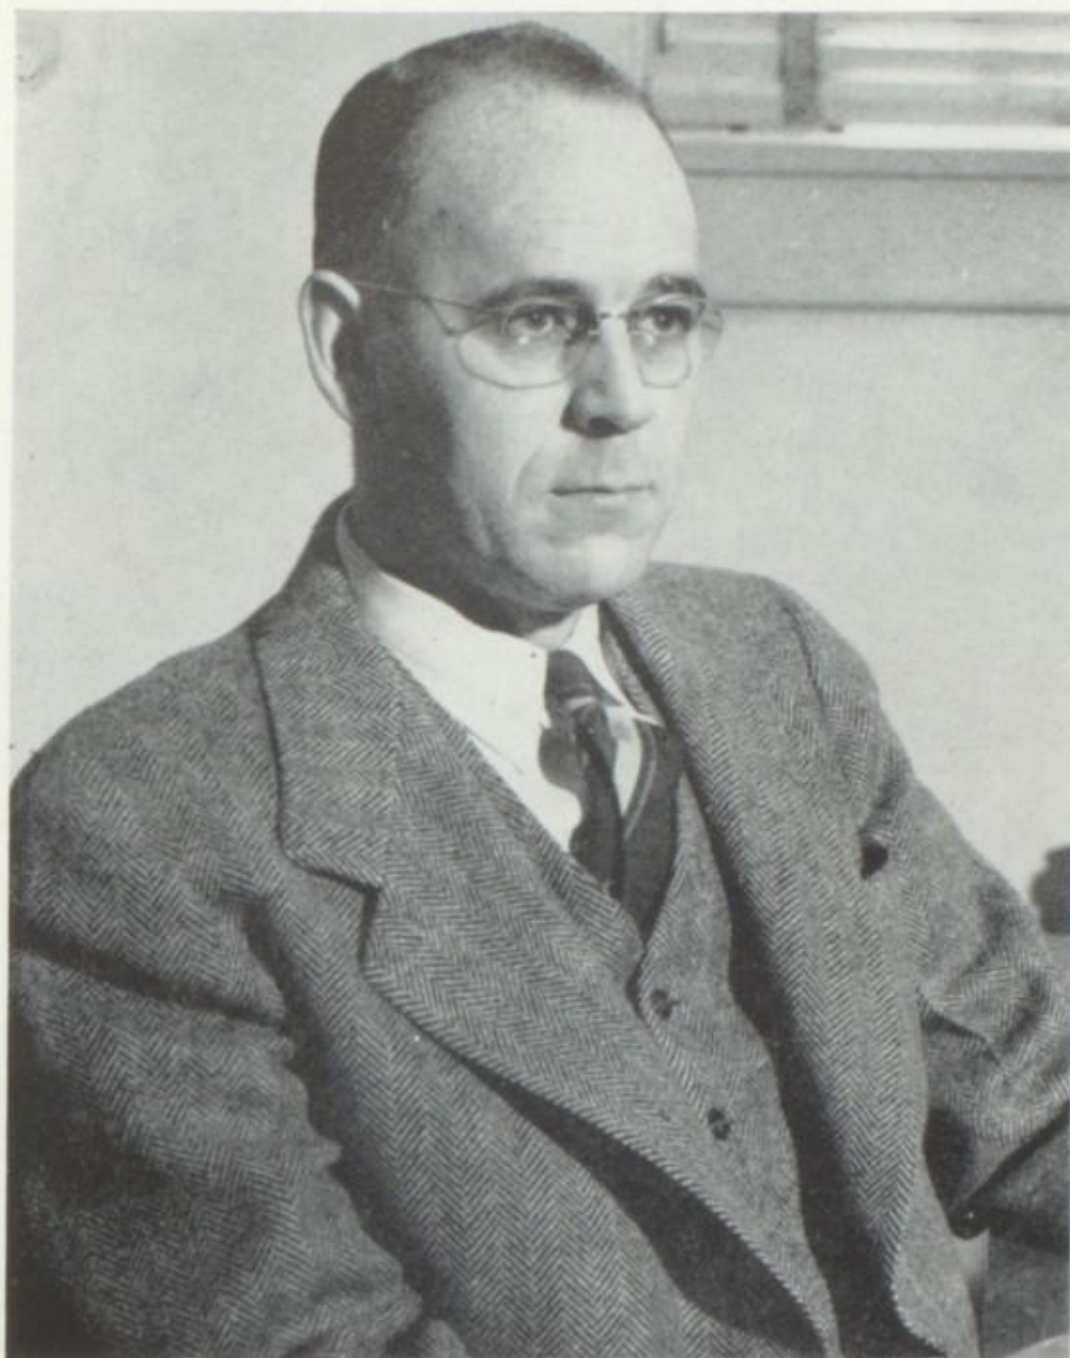

Your friendly sponsor,

W. W. Christensen

Mrs. St. Clair

CLAIR GALE

MESSAGE

Your 1946 Spud Annual is dedicated to men and women who fought and died to make a better world. We must not forget them. We must realize, however, that the responsibility for making the better world they died for and you want to live in is in your hands. Very soon you will be contributing your part as important citizens in the communities where you live. Your responsibilities are great ones, and we are sure you will share them and face them realistically and efficiently. We believe in you and have faith in you, the youth of today, to make a better world to live in tomorrow.

Clair Gale

Louise Kerr

MISS FAYE NORRIS

Miss Faye Norris, student advisor, is the one who helps the students arrange schedules and keeps their credits in line for graduation.

MRS. NONA McCOWAN

Mrs. Nona "Mom" McCowan is attendance officer. She issues the absence slips and helps with locker trouble besides supplying pins, pencils, pens, and other necessities. She is the all round students' friend.

MISS LORRAINE HOLLAND

Through the efforts of Miss Lorraine Holland, librarian, students have good reading material and up-to-date magazines for reference work.

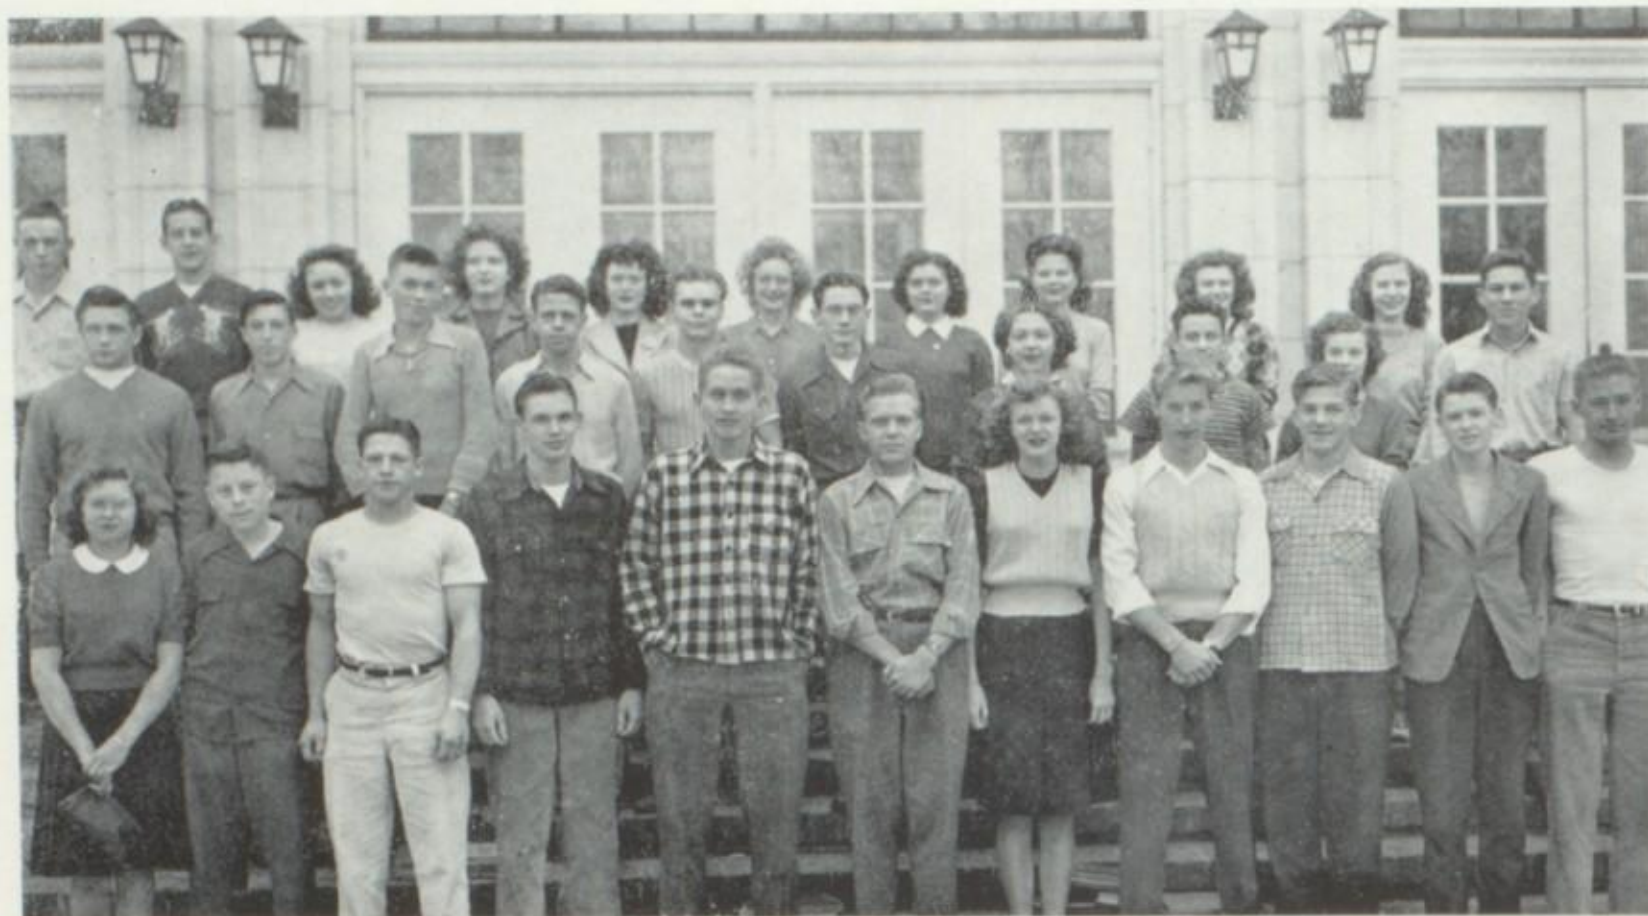

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

Ralph Holden, student body president, is outstanding in athletics, activities, and scholastics. His cheery smile and hearty voice are things that his classmates and friends will long remember him for. Dick Peterson, vice president, is probably best known for his dramatic ability. "Pete" presides over student council and takes an active part in all school functions. Secretary Shirley Dick, noted for her peppy personality and originality, has acted as chairman for many successful committees this year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

- ROW 1 Betty Boozer, Donald Tolley, Kenneth Stosich, Vance Holland, Roland Minson, Robert Crabtree, Shirley Dick, Dick Peterson, Howard Mead, Travis Hawes, Lloyd Schmidt.
- ROW 2 Ralph Holden, Odell Pancheri, Leo Larson, James Stewart, Kenneth Carhill, Neil Humphrey, Marilyn Wooley, Dale Redfield, Dora Dean Tolley, Rex Hillman.
- ROW 3 Jack Remsburg, Karl Woolf, Margery Johnson, Nadine Storer, Norma Long, Mary Alice Westergard, Jeanine McCarty, Eldora Erickson, Donna Decker, Roberta Koster.

Student Council has been an enormous help in deciding student problems and issues. This organization is presided over by Dick Peterson, vice president of the student body. There is one representative for the council from every home room.

STUDENT COURT

Student court, presided over by Thomas Rigby, judge, was organized for the purpose of enforcing the school laws and bringing to trial all student offenders. Bob Gray acts as prosecuting attorney and Vance Holland as head monitor.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

The now mighty seniors started out as lowly "Diaper Dampers" under the student leadership of Ralph Holden, president; Max Chandler, vice-president; and Shirley Dick, secretary. Their first production in public, a skit at high school night, met with great approval. The Sophomore Hop was centered around the theme, "Moonlight and Roses."

As juniors the class presented "Ghost Wanted," a mystery three-act play that was well received. Myrna Kidd represented the class as junior choice for football queen. Shirley Dick was re-elected secretary of the class, and Dale Brown and Kenneth Stosich were president and vice-president.

Climaxing their high school careers, the class of 1946 presented a successful three-act play. At high school night the senior skit won first place and wee Juanita Cole was crowned football queen. Joyce Schmier, senior choice for Harvest Queen, was crowned at the Ag Bawl in November. The student officers, Bob Crabtree, Dick Armstrong, and Janeen Wasden, directed a full program of senior activities; outstanding among them was the senior ball which was held in the armory on December 28, using the theme song and decorations, "Love Letters."

The seniors finished their high school with a sentimental assembly and impressive luncheon.

JUNIOR CLASS

Bob Gray, Dick Bendixsen and Jane Gustin were elected officers of the class that entered high school under the monicker, "Romper Rippers." That first year an outstanding Sophomore Hop and assembly were presented and the sophs started in 1945 as versatile juniors, well educated in high school ways.

In their junior year, 1945-46, the class elected Vance Holland, president; Richard Stosich, vice-president; and Betty Briggs, secretary. These officers directed the production of an unusual skit for high school night, and their candidate, Jane Gustin, was attendant to the football queen.

The junior class play, "Junior Miss" was a rollicking comedy presented December 11 and 12. Their prom, one of the outstanding dances of the year was presented in the spring.

SOPHOMORES

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The "Thumb-thuckers of Forty-Thix" spent their first high school day roaming the halls, thumbs in mouth to denote their inferior rank but soon developed into regular I. F. high-ers after withstanding initiation and teasing by the upper-classmen.

Ray Tate, Gordon Dick and Pat Mason were elected student leaders to help their class over the rough spots of the first year in high school. Red-head Bob Tobin won the sophomores' vote for class yell leader.

The Sophomore Hop was characterized by striking decorations and a good intermission. On the football field and basketball floor the "Thumb-Thuckers" were represented by husky athletes that made the first team in both sports.

Joan Schley, dark-eyed brunette, was an attendant to the football queen at high school night, where the sophomores presented a humorous skit.

ORGANIZATIONS

BAND

Snappy music and fine marching characterized this year's band under the direction of A. L. Gifford. This group participated in several civic programs including a concert at Tautphaus park and the Blackfoot fair. Many students participated in the music clinic held at Pocatello, with guest conductor, Carlton Stewart, famous bandleader, conducting them. Although the band did not go out of state this year, it made a fine showing at Pocatello at the annual contest. "The Merry Wives of Windsor" and "Ballet Egyptian" were two concert pieces they played at contest.

ORCHESTRA

"Die Fledermaus" and "Stradella," two very difficult pieces were part of the extensive repertoire of the symphony orchestra this year. Director A. L. Gifford proclaims this orchestra to be one of the finest this school has produced. These talented students participated in music clinic, a mid-winter concert, commencement exercises and other school and local affairs. Donna Nelson is the orchestra pianist and Lynn Peterson is student director.

DRUM MAJOR

On Deen Riches, drum major, rested the responsibility of maintaining the high standards of the high school marching band. He very ably led the band in the parades, marching contests and exhibitions in which the group took part this year.

BAND OFFICERS

Exemplifying student leadership are the band officers, elected annually, who keep attendance records and supplies for the entire band as well as conducting class in the absence of director, A. L. Gifford. This year's officers Ray Haroldsen, president, Norman Haroldsen, business manager; and Ann Ray, secretary; carried efficiently the duties of their offices.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

A capella choir has participated in the nineteenth annual mid-winter concert, attended clinic at Pocatello and assisted in The Messiah. The members also sang for the Kiwanis club, sang at the L.D.S. seventh ward church and sponsored a dance.

CHOIR OFFICERS

Officers that were elected by the choir members are Robert Crowley, president; Colleen Fotheringham, assistant business manager; Yvonne Fargo, secretary; James Stewart, business manager; and Henry Hopkins, vice president is not shown.

 Row 3. Margaret Wasley, Joy Gillen, Jackie Gardner, Veldaun Porter, Marv Steinke, Lorene Elg, Leah Woolsley, Margaret Shane, Glenna Winn, Alice Maas, Helen White.
 The director of the glee club is Elliot Budge.

The stage crew has been an essential part in the production of all plays, assemblies, reviews, concerts and other presentations on the high school stage. Work in the stage crew gives points toward becoming a member of Thespians. Left to right the stage hands are Greg Smith, Dick Boyle, Henry Hopkins, Tom Rigby and Bob Ferguson.

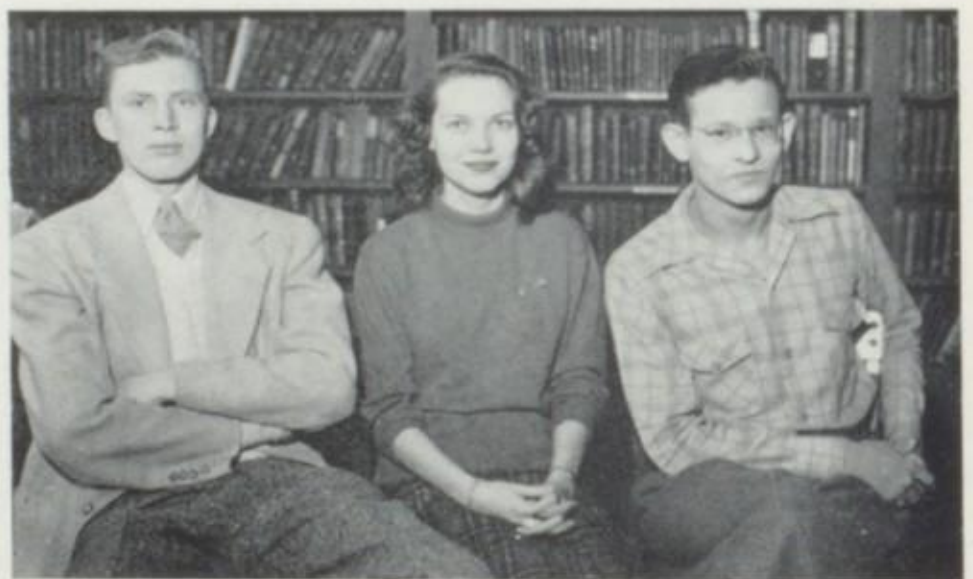

THESPIANS

Troupe 480 of the National Thespians has done much toward promoting dramatic talent this year. They presented lunch hour plays, an annual assembly and sponsored the two act play "Nine Girls" on Thespian night. The troupe worked diligently to clean and repair the stage near the end of the year.

OFFICERS

Tom Rigby President
 Henry Hopkins Vice President
 Jackie Adams Secretary
 J. H. Plummer Advisor

PEP CLUB

Pep club put on an annual assembly, sponsored pep assemblies and helped promote school spirit. Also, they sponsored a successful annual dance and were responsible for the popular telegram concession at the school carnival. At the end of the year the girls gave a banquet for the athletic boys who had received letters in a major sport.

OFFICERS

Dora Dean Tolley President

Donna Rytting Secretary

Jackie Mitchell Vice President

Myrna Kidd Treasurer (not shown)

Laverne Dixon Advisor (not shown)

DANCE CLUB

The Pavlowette Dance club started a successful year at a breakfast in the fall given in honor of the new members. They presented a dance using the traditional Dinty Moore theme. A dance review assembly, for which the club was commended, was presented in April and the year was ended at a club party in May.

OFFICERS

Eleanor Martindale President

Margaret Wilhite Vice President

Yvonne Nicholls Secretary

La Rue Miller Advisor

HI-Y CLUB

The district conference for Hi-Y officers from clubs at adjoining towns was held in Idaho Falls this year. The Hi-Y club was of general service to the school in selling apples and cokes at basketball and football games and by serving for the Sportsmans Jamboree. A dance was sponsored by this club and also a successful assembly.

OFFICERS

- Gene Bush President
- Robert Ferguson Vice President
- Robert McEntire Secretary
- Neil Humphrey Sergeant at Arms
- Dick Boyle Chaplain

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Girls Athletic Association promotes good sportsmanship and fair play among its members. During noon hours, games of basketball, softball, volley ball and badminton are played between teams. Mrs. La Rue Miller is the club sponsor. The officers are: Melba Olson, president; Eunice Johnson, vice president; Geraldine Fisher, secretary; Nita Smith, business manager; Helen Haroldson, reporter.

GIRLS' FEDERATION

The largest organization in school is Girls' Federation for every high school girl is a member. G.F. has charge of the candy sales at noon, they presented an informal dance in the winter, and in the spring gave a get-acquainted tea for freshman girls.

Roberta Koster is President; Jane Gustin, vice president; Lois Herd, reporter; Bonnie Gascoigne, secretary; and Martha Nelson is treasurer.

I. F. CLUB

This club represents all of the boys who have earned an I. F. letter in a major sport during their high school years. The club officers are:

Robert Crowley	President	Bob Geisler	Secretary
Dale Brown	Vice President	Gene Bates	Sgt. at Arms
Bill Clapp	Sgt. at Arms

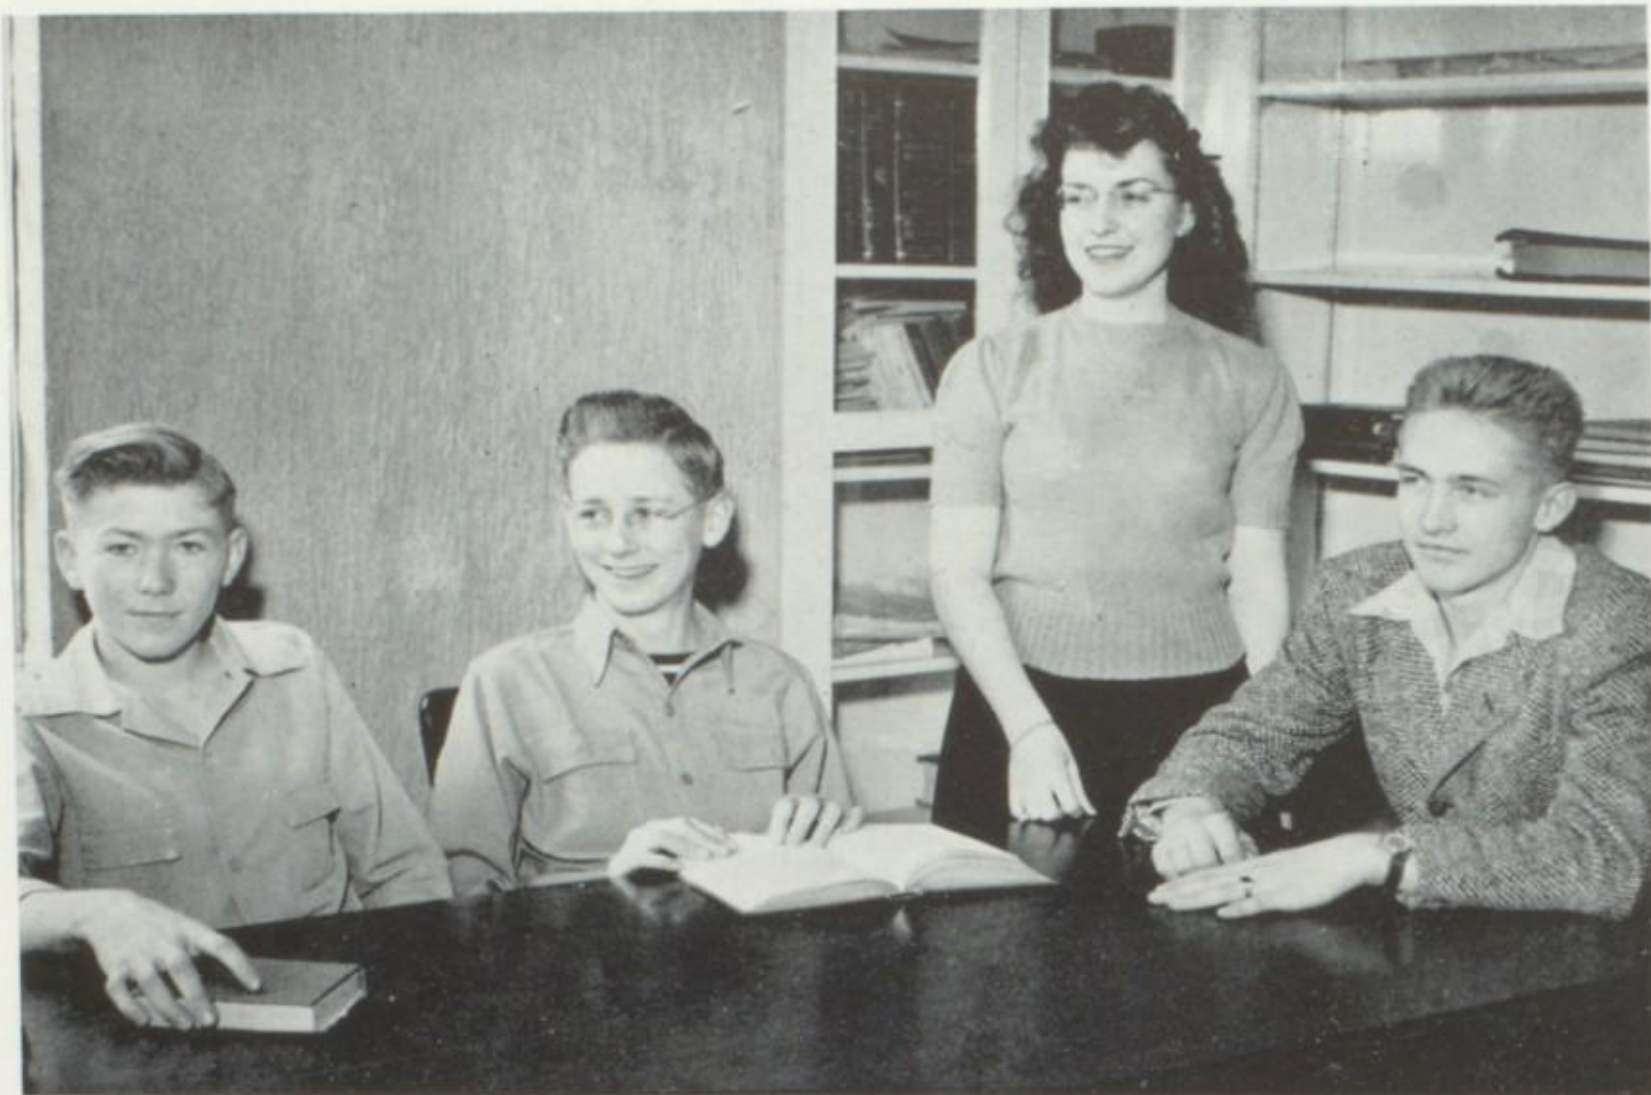

RIFLE CLUB

The Rifle club under the direction of Ted Meierotto, of the Idaho Falls gun club, has been an active organization this year. Many new members joined the club after this picture was taken so it isn't a correct representation:

Dick Boyle	President	Rick Monson	Secretary
Bob Ferguson	Vice President	Bud Sessions	Executive

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Two courses were taught in religion this year. Mr. Almon Brown and Miss Lawrence were in charge of the seminary groups and Father Casbey taught the Catholic mass. Representatives from the classes are Joe Walsh and Thomas Mitchell, Catholic; and Kathy Johnson and Roland Minson, Seminary.

SPANISH CLUB

The most important activity of the Spanish Club this year was the Christmas fiesta celebrated on December 20. Miss Pauline Layne, the sponsor, helped the club to present a pay assembly in March.

Raymond Brinkman	President	Edna Hales	Secretary
Russell Baum	Vice President	Joan Hake	Treasurer
Lila Pickering	Reporter

SKI CLUB

Ski club was resumed this year as a school activity after a four year absence. The club offered transportation to the ski lift near Ririe and free instruction was given to beginners. President of the club is Gordon L. Boyle and the high school representatives are Jo Anne Bybee and Dick Boyle.

MACHINE SHOP

The purpose of the machine shop is to acquaint the students with the operation, cleaning and repairing of lathes, milling machines, shapers, drill presses and other machines. The classes learned to make bracelets, wrenches, and other useful articles. The classes are under the direction of Mr. C. R. Kroll.

AG BAWL

Chickens were awarded to Shirley Dick and Vance Holland as the best dressed couple at the Bawl. A goose, raffled off to the faculty, was won for the second consecutive year by Miss Fannie Hodge.

A shock of wheat and a kiss were bestowed upon Joice Schmier, senior choice for Ag Queen. Her attendants were Joan Poulson sophomore, and Mavis Jolley, junior.

F F U U T T U U R R E E S S

The aim of F. F. A. is to make the boys of today better farmers of tomorrow. One of the club projects was a pest control contest, at the end of which a party was given for the winning team. Some of the fellows entered stock in the fat stock show at the Idaho Falls stock yards. For the first semester the club sponsor was Mr. Arthur Sylvester and second semester it was Mr. Glen Thorne.

ACTIVITIES

SENIOR BALL

All decorated in pink and black, the armory made a lovely setting for the annual senior ball. A large heart at one end of the floor framed the words to "Love Letters." Ralph Holden led the grand march followed by Robert Crabtree, senior class president; Dick Armstrong, vice president; and Janeen Wasden, secretary. Each of the windows of the room was made into a love letter and the punch stand was a post office. Henry Hopkins was in charge of decorations; La Mona Merrill, programs; Colleen Fotheringham, intermission; Donna Rytting, orchestra; Donna Decker, refreshments.

"LOVE LETTERS"

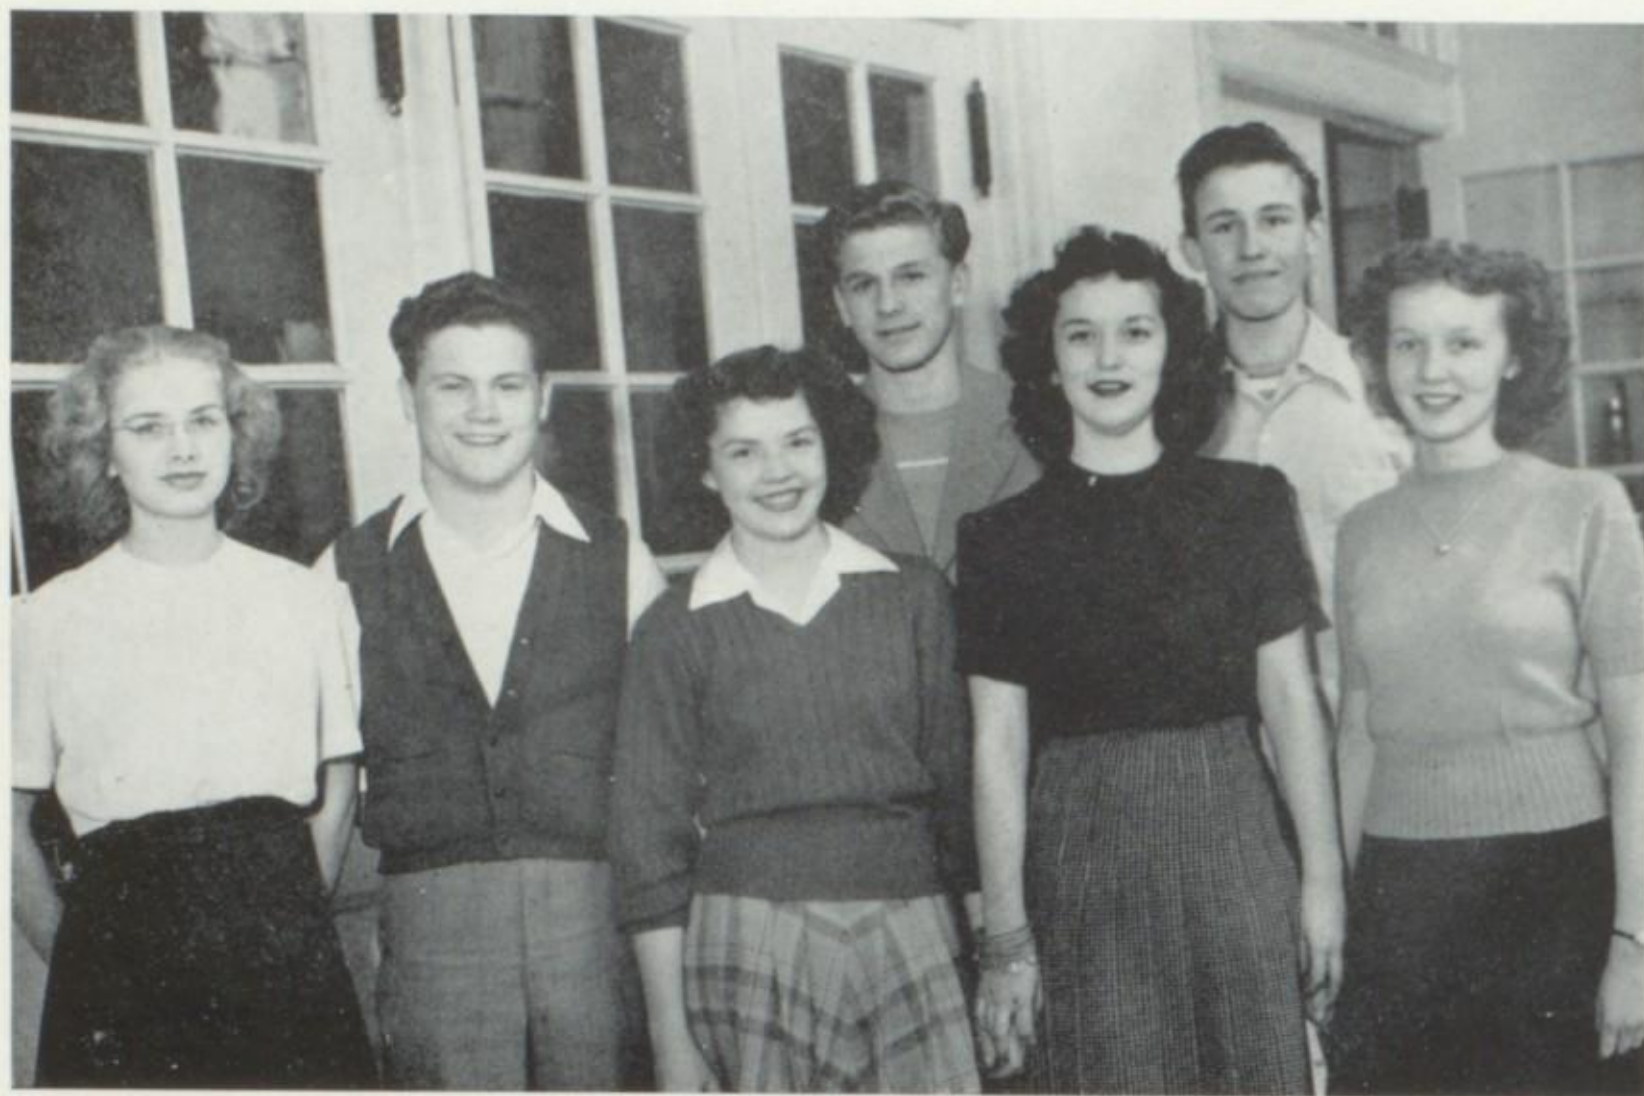

JUNIOR PROM

Stars hung down from a blue ceiling to luminate a desert scene at the annual Junior prom in April. At the end of the floor there was an oasis of palm trees surrounding a brightly colored lean-to that was the punch stand. Kenny Walker's orchestra furnished music for the affair from another lean-to. These decorations were arranged by Nadine Maurer and Richard Jordan, chairmen of the decorating committee. Lila Jean Faust and Dick Bendixsen were co-chairmen for the affair and working under them were Keith Keefer, advertising; Betty Briggs, invitations; Marilyn Wooley, programs; Max Hemsley, intermission; Richard Stosich, orchestra; Sylvia Patterson, refreshments.

SOPHOMORE HOP

A wonderland of red and white streamers and glittered hearts greeted students who attended this year's Sophomore Hop. Programs in the form of glittered hearts were given to students as they entered the gym through a giant red and white heart. Chairman in charge of decorations for carrying out the theme, "If I Had a Dozen Hearts," was Lois Larch. Arrangements for the music of Nelson's orchestra was made by Pat Mason, Bill Christensen was in charge of refreshments. A unique floorshow was planned by Merri Sorsensen, while Gordon Dick acted as master of ceremonies. Advertising was done by Dona Abbott and Rick Monson. General chairman for the affair was Ray Tate, class president.

"IF I HAD A DOZEN HEARTS"

PEP
CLUB
DANCE

COMMENCEMENT
DANCE

The senior's school year was climaxed by a formal dance, commencement. This affair was given in honor of the graduating class by Girls Federation. The armory was lovely, decorated in spring colors and carrying out the theme of the dance. General chairman was Jackie Mitchell and committees were headed by Margaret Wilhite, Kathryn Sundberg, Audrey Bailey, Donna Nelson, Rose Marre Holden and Helen Hungerford.

"JUNIOR MISS"

"Junior Miss," a three act comedy, was presented successfully by the Junior class this year. The play has to do with the troubles of teen-age Judy Foster and her friend Fuffy Adams as they try to straighten out Judy's wayward father. The play was directed by J. H. Plummer and Charmaine Matson was student director.

"NINE GIRLS"

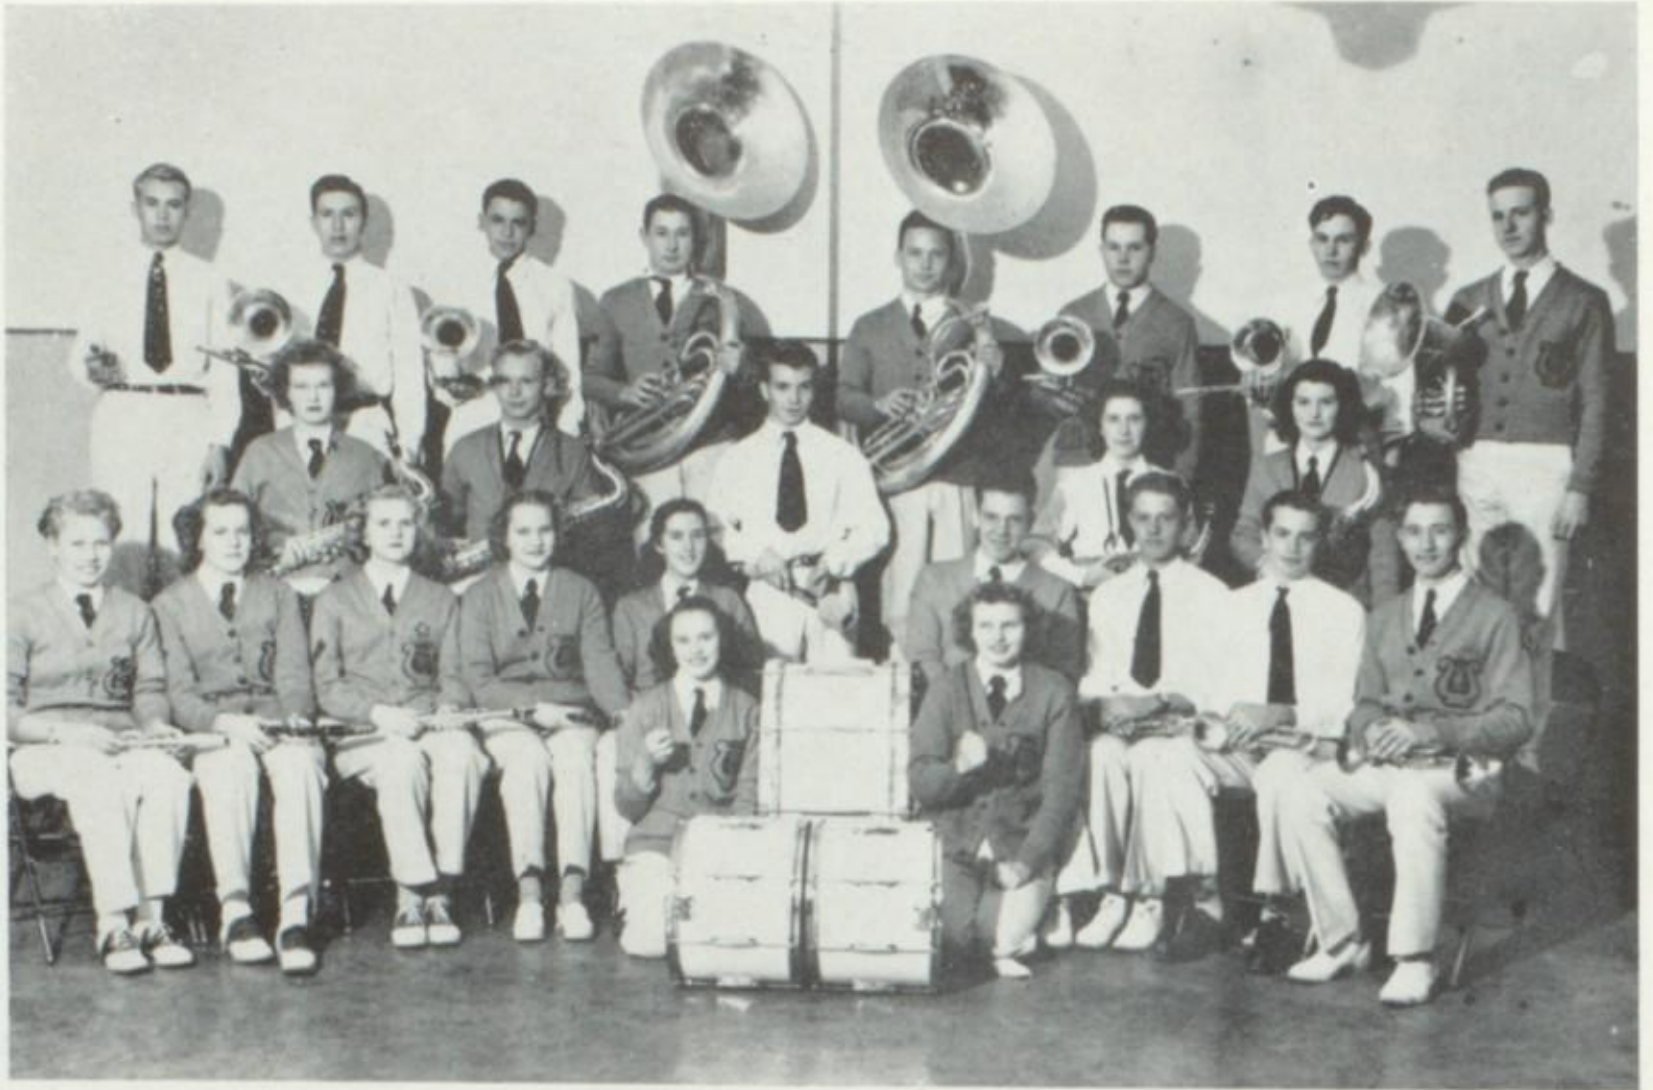

The Thespian troupe sponsored "Nine Girls" as their project for national thespian week. The play was written by Wilford H. Pettitt and directed by J. H. Plummer, dramatics coach. The entire action of the play takes place in a sorority club house in the mountains where a murder is committed by one of the nine lovely sorority sisters. A dramatic climax is reached in the last scene when Mary, one of the girls confesses to the crime.

PEP BAND

The Pep band, under the leadership of Jim Hops, president, has done much this past year to boost the morale of our athletes and students. The band played at all home games, pep assemblies, and also for the sportsman's round table. Donna Bateman was the secretary of the organization and Carl Guderjohn acted as the business manager. Besides playing marches, and school songs the band had several selections of boogie woogie in their repertoire.

CHEER LEADERS

Three redheads and a brunette made up the group of cheerleaders this year. Adding many new yells to their collection, the leaders helped immensely to raise school spirit in both pep assemblies and games. Cheer queen was Donna Decker, and Fred Meichle was king. Bonnie Williams was junior pepster and Bob Tobin represented the Sophomore class.

Wee Juanita Cole, football queen, is noted for her height which is four feet, ten inches. She was presented with an orchid corsage from the senior class, a gold football and golden sceptor from her attendants, and a kiss from student body President Ralph Holden.

DANCE REVIEW

In April the Pavlowette Dance club presented their review to the high school students and then to junior high. Seventeen dances were given in full costume including tap, ballet, adagio, soft shoe, ballroom, jitterbug, gypsy and Indian. Pictured above in the hula dance are Dolores Haack, Doris Moore, Lou Jean Oswald, Joice Schmier and Mary Cowan.

One of the solo dancers in the review was Betty Burnham who did an effective Indian dance with drum background.

Colleen Dennis was another of the featured dancers. Colleen was in two other dances and taught several of them.

JUNIOR ASSEMBLY

Darum and Daly's circus was the scene of a colorful assembly sponsored by the junior class. Phyll Hansen acted as circus barker and announced such acts as clowns, snake charmers, a Turk with his harem, dancing girls, tumblers and the fattest woman in the world. The class band played between acts and peanuts and popcorn were sold by vendors to the audience. Charmaine Matson directed the assembly.

"WHY THE CHIMES RANG"

Every fourth year, the senior class presents "Why the Chimes Rang," a Christmas assembly. The impressive fantasy was well received by the students and many alumni. Members of the speaking cast were Margaret Wilhite, Kenneth Stosich, Dick Peterson and Henry Hopkins. Those in the tableau included Ralph Holden, Gerry Taylor, Kay Meyer, Robert Crabtree, Thane Johnson, Dick Boyle, Emmy Ball, Jim Stewart and Jackie Adams.

TEAM

A winning team was compiled out of the forty-seven enthusiastic players who came out for football this year. Although they did not all earn a letter in this sport, they were trained for a first-class team for next year.

CO-MANAGERS

Dale Redfield and Gene Jones, co-managers for the gridders, proved to be worthy bottle carriers. They could be seen at every game dashing across the field in oversized football coats carrying the first aid kit.

COACH

Coach Stan Pavkov's second year at Idaho Falls High School has been an outstanding one for the football team. Pavkov has had much football experience with three years of varsity football at the University of Idaho and playing professionally for the Pittsburgh "Steelers."

Finishing the season with two wins and four losses, this year's basketball team is really one to be proud of. One of the year's most outstanding games was the one in which the Tigers defeated Utah's state championship team. Left to right—Coach Thompson, Rex Hillman, Roland Minson, Bob Crowley, Jim Mefferd, Vance Holland, Dale Olson, Dick Armstrong, Russell Moffett, Jay Green, Joe Nelson, Manager Dick Bendixson and Sam Williams.

COACH

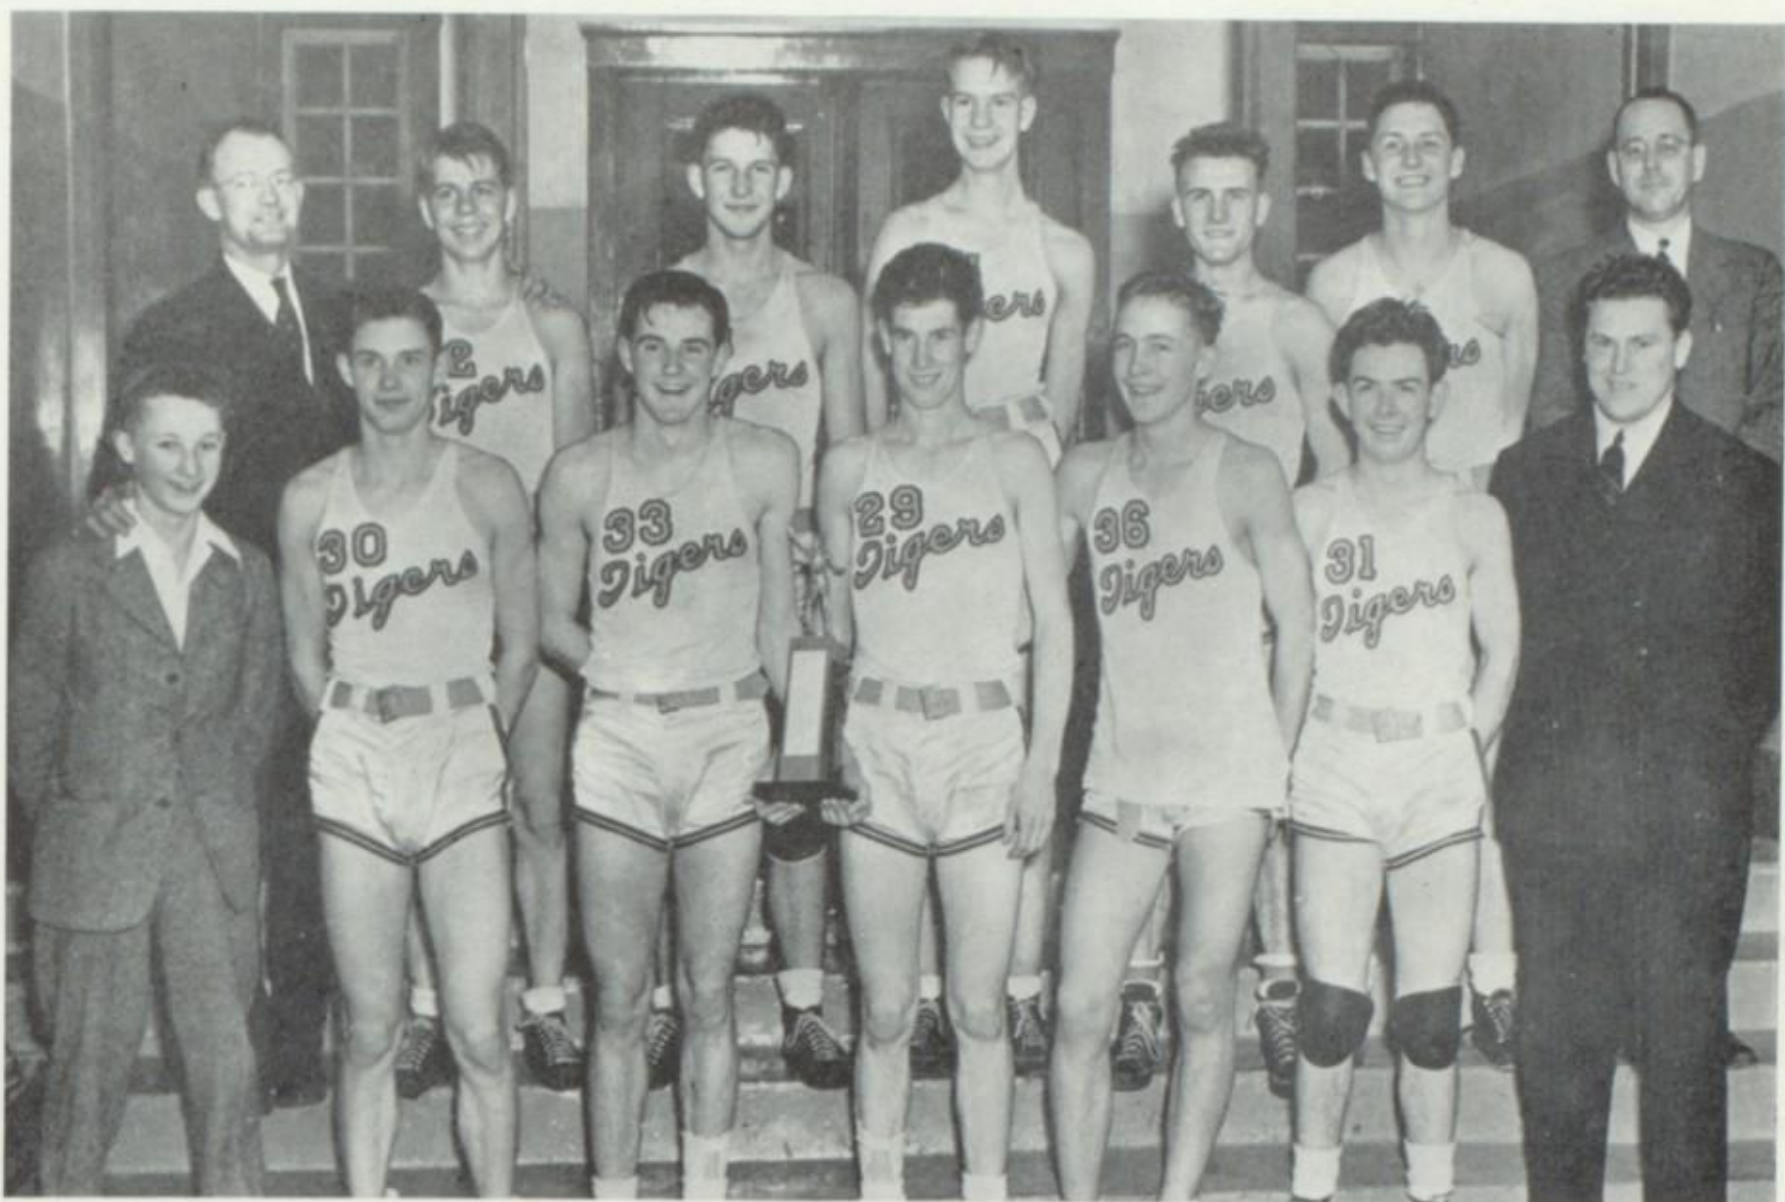

SEASON GAMES

Coach "Cat" Thompson has again coached a team to be proud of. A team who won sixth district tournament, co-championship of the Big Six League and runner-up title for the southern state.

Not shown is the 1946 big six co-championship trophy.

The Junior Varsity Basketball team made a good showing for itself before every home varsity game. Many times their games were won or lost by slender margins and they often proved more exciting than the varsity games.

JUNIOR VARSITY

TUMBLING TEAM

This is the first year for a boys' tumbling in Idaho Falls High School. These four versatile boys entertained at various clubs and lodges in Idaho Falls and adjoining towns. The tumblers are Gene Hammond, Dick Lewis, Charles Scobie, and Robert Henderson. Mr. Adkins acts as advisor.

One of the sports highlights of the past year was the state boxing meet held in Idaho Falls. Eighty-three mittmen from high schools all over Idaho attended this Golden Glove Tournament. Stan Pavkov coached the group and Richard Jordan acted as manager.

The Idaho Falls track team began work-outs this spring with a group of twenty-five. Outstanding achievements were the cross country three-mile race and the meets that were held here and in neighboring towns. I. F. letters were awarded to the winners. The team was coached by "Cat" Thompson and Dale Redfield, manager.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

The girls' physical education department has had a very active and successful year. The intra-mural teams participated in softball, deck tennis, volleyball and basketball tournaments. Toward the end of the year an all-school team was cosen for basketball. They played teams from Rigby, Rexburg, Ammon and Shelley.

Girls on the Tumbling team began their teamwork three years ago when they were in junior high. During the year they performed at school, church and community affairs.

Participating on the team are Betty Denman, Lois Reynwald, Betty Burnham, Beverly Toone, Barbara Toone and Alice Johnson.

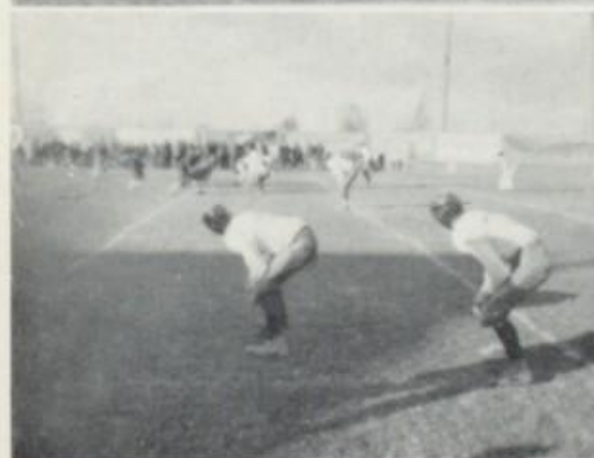

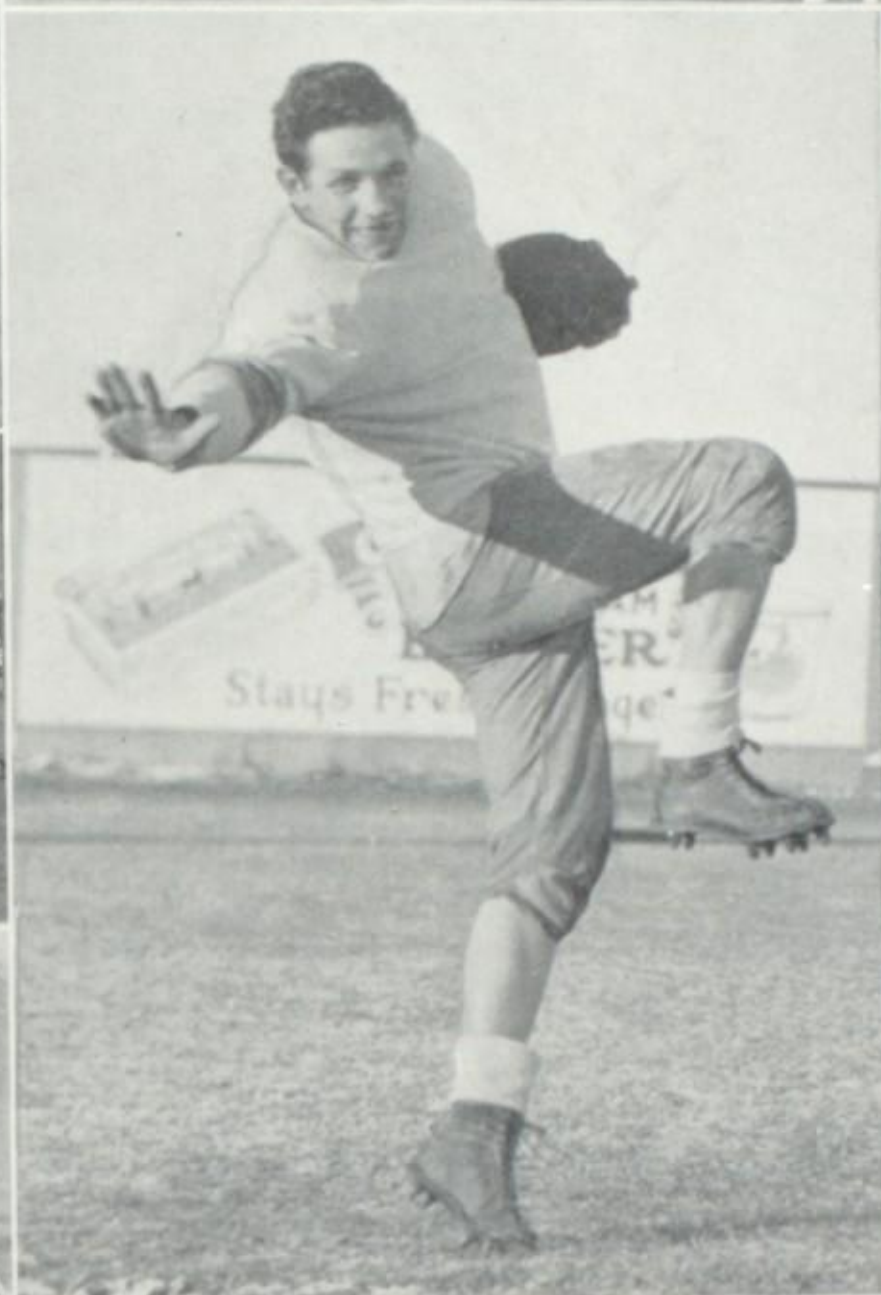

La Rue Miller, physical education instructor and tumbling team sponsor, has been with this girls' athletics department for two years. Previously she taught at junior high.

Dear Keith

I really don't know you very well
But I've heard you were a real sweet kid. And from what I've heard & know of you you really are. But just the same
I really was glad you were in Biology third period
Just the same. even though you & Packer were quite silly just joking I really didn't mean it. Keith I wish you all the luck to a real sweet kid.

Best wishes to you and Always remember Biology.

Will good luck through out
all your school years to come & go.
Just a Drip the same as you & Packer

P.S. I've written in it once
but ~~don't~~ twice what
I want.

Always

Callene M^cGary.
